

2026 IEEE 9th International Conference on PATTERN RECOGNITION AND ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE

SPECIAL SESSION 02

Intelligent Data Analysis and Cyber Security

The increasing severity of cyber attacks has made cyberspace security an important research area, and mining critical information from various types of cybersecurity data has attracted increasing attention. Effective analysis of security data using advanced artificial intelligence and big data analysis techniques can provide a more powerful and intelligent way to defend against cybersecurity risks.

Related Topics

Topics of interest include, but are not limited to:

- Cybersecurity Data Analysis and Mining
- Security and privacy of big data
- Information extraction and text mining for threat intelligence
- Natural Language Processing
- Mobile Big Data Computing for Cybersecurity
